Enacting clause.

BE it enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows :—

Dealing in certain metals and ores prohibited without license.

1. (1) It shall not be lawful for any company, firm, or individual, after the expiration of six months from the passing of this Act, or such longer period as the Minister may in any particular case allow, to carry on the business of extracting, smelting, dressing, refining, or dealing by way of ^{Certain metals, etc.} wholesale trade in metal or metallic ore to which this Act applies, unless licensed to do so by the Minister; provided that the purchase of metal by persons for the purpose of use in their trade shall not be deemed to be dealing in such metal by way of wholesale trade where the trade carried on by the purchaser is not primarily the trade of dealing in metals.

- (2) In the case of a company, firm or individual, with respect to which or to whom any of the conditions set forth in the Schedule to this Act apply, no license shall be granted unless the Minister is of opinion that for any special reason the grant of a license is expedient, but save as aforesaid any company, firm or individual carrying on or proposing to carry on such business as aforesaid, shall, on making application in the prescribed manner, and on furnishing such information and allowing inspection of such books and documents as may be reasonably required, and on payment of the prescribed fee, be entitled to a license under this Act.
- (3) A license under this Act, unless suspended or revoked, shall remain in force until the first day of January following the date of issue of the license, but shall be renewable annually, and the same provisions shall apply to the renewal of the license as apply to the grant of a license.
- (4) The Minister, if satisfied by evidence not before him at the time when the license was granted that such company, firm or individual is, or has become, subject to any of the conditions set forth in the Schedule to this Act, may revoke or suspend the license.
- (5) If any question arises between the Minister and any company, firm or individual, as to whether or not any of the conditions set forth in the Schedule to this Act apply in respect of the company, firm or individual, the question shall, subject to the rules of Court, be referred by the Minister to the Supreme Court for determination, and on any such reference it shall rest with the company, firm, or individual, to show that none of such conditions as aforesaid apply, and the decision of the Supreme Court on any such reference shall be final, and no appeal therefrom shall lie to any other Court.

- (6) Where at the expiration of the said six months or longer period allowed by the Minister, or at any time when a license expires, proceedings on any such application are pending in the Supreme Court, the Court may, on application being made for the purpose, extend the said period of six months or longer period as respects that company, firm or individual, or as the case may be, the duration of the license, for such period as may be necessary to allow the question to be determined by the Court.

Inquiries and inspection of books, etc.

2. The Minister shall have power at any time to require any person able to give information with respect to the constitution, control or management of any company, firm or individual which or who has applied for the grant of a license, or to which or to whom a license has been granted under this Act, to furnish such information within such time as the Minister may direct, and for the purpose of obtaining or verifying such information any person appointed by the Minister in that behalf shall be entitled to inspect any books and documents belonging to or under the control of such company, firm or individual.

Penalties.

3. (1) If any person carries on the business of extracting, smelting, dressing, refining, or dealing in any metal or metallic ore in contravention of this Act without a license, he shall, on information being laid by or with the consent of the Minister, be liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, or on summary conviction to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding three months, or to a fine of five hundred dollars, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

(2) If any person refuses or neglects to furnish any information which under this Act is required to be furnished within the time within which it is to be furnished, or knowingly furnishes any information required to be furnished under this Act which is false in any material particular, or having custody of any book or document which a person is authorized to inspect under this Act, refuses or wilfully neglects to produce the book or document for inspection, or forges or fraudulently alters or uses or permits to be fraudulently used any license issued under this Act, he shall be liable, on summary conviction, to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding three months, or to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

(3) Where the person guilty of an offence under this Act is a company, every director, manager, secretary, and other officer of the company who is knowingly a party to the default, shall also be guilty of the like offence, and liable to the like punishment.

4. The Minister may make rules (subject in respect of fees to the approval of the Governor in Council) for prescribing anything which, under this Act, is to be prescribed, and generally for carrying this Act into effect. Rules.

5. The metals and ores to which this Act applies are zinc, copper, tin, lead, nickel, aluminium, and any other non-ferrous metals and ores to which this Act may be applied by order of the Minister, and the expression "ore" shall Metals and ores to which Act applies.

CAP. XV.

An Act further to amend the Act 3 Edward VII. (1903), Chapter Six, entitled "An Act respecting Crown Lands, Timber, Mines and Minerals"

[PASSED MAY 16TH, 1918.]

SECTION

- 1.—Limitation of right to cut timber for shipbuilding.
- 2.—Repeal and substitution.
- 3.—Reservation of minerals from license, etc.
- 6.—Amendment of sections 47 and 53 of 3 Ed. VII. (1903), cap. 6.

SECTION

- 4.—Computation of period of mineral license.
- 5.—Minister deemed to have an interest in land held under Crown Grants.

Enacting clause.

BE it enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

Limitation of right to cut timber for shipbuilding.

1. Notwithstanding anything contained in section twenty-five of the Act 3 Edward VII. (1903), Chapter Six, entitled "An Act respecting Crown Lands, Timber, Mines and Minerals," no person, firm, or company shall, without the consent of the licensee in writing first had and obtained, cut on any lands licensed as in the said section mentioned, any timber for the building of any vessel of over one hundred tons gross tonnage, or knowingly use for the building of such a vessel any timber so cut. Every person, firm or company committing a breach of this section shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding one thousand dollars, which may be recovered in a summary manner before a Stipendiary Magistrate at the suit of the licensee.

Repeal and substitution.

2. Sub-section eight of the said section is hereby repealed, and the following is substituted therefor:

- (8) Whenever the licensee or his assigns shall commit a breach of any of the conditions of the license other than the condition requiring the payment of ground rent and royalty, he or they shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding ten thousand dollars, or to the forfeiture of the license, or to both. The said penalty may be recovered and the said forfeiture enforced by a suit in the Supreme Court in the name of the Minister of Agriculture and Mines, and the penalty and any costs of suit awarded shall be a first charge upon any and all property of the licensee that may be upon the land licensed.

3. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, re-serve from the operation of the said Act in any area, tract, mining location, or parcel of land within the Colony, all minerals therein not held by any person under a subsisting license, lease or grant, and which are not at the time of such reservation the subject of an application for a license thereof under the provisions of the said Act, and may prescribe the terms upon which such minerals may be sold, leased, or otherwise disposed of, and may from time to time rescind such reservation in whole or in part, and re-subject such minerals or part thereof to the operation of the said Act.

4. (1) The period of twelve months for which a license of minerals may be granted under this Act shall be computed so as to include the day of the date of such license, and shall expire at midnight on the same day of the same month in the following year, and a new license for the said minerals may be applied for and granted at or after the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon on the next lawful day after such expiry.

(2) Provided, however, that all licenses of minerals granted on or before the fifteenth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, except a license granted on the fifth day of January, 1916, to John T. Lamb and others, shall be deemed not to be invalid by reason only of the fact that the same may, in accordance with the then practice of the Department of Agriculture and Mines, have been granted on the anniversary of the date of a previous license for the same minerals, and that no lease or fee-simple grant issued to the holder of any such license so granted shall be deemed to be invalid by reason only of such license having been granted as aforesaid; but nothing in this proviso contained shall affect or prejudice any action or actions now pending in the Supreme Court regarding titles to mining locations or the legality of licenses issued in accordance with the practice aforesaid.

Minister deemed to have an interest in land held under Crown Grants.

5. To prevent doubts, it is hereby declared that the Minister of Agriculture and Mines shall, for the purposes of section one hundred and fifty-six of the Judicature Act, 1904, be deemed to be a person having an interest in all lands and tenements in this Colony held under Crown Grants so as to enable him to prefer a petition under the said section against the holder of any Crown Grant which he may claim ought to be set aside or otherwise dealt with as provided in the said section.

Amendment of sections 47 and 53 of 5 Ed. VII., (1903), cap. 6.

6. (1) Section forty-seven of the said Act, as amended by the Act 6 Edward VII. (1906), Chapter twenty-seven, section three, is hereby further amended by striking out therefrom the word "paid" and substituting therefor the word "due."

(2) Section fifty-three of the said Act is hereby amended by inserting therein after the word "term" the words "or within one month thereafter."

CAP. XVI.

An Act further to amend the Act 4 George V. (1914), Chapter Seventeen, entitled "An Act respecting the Operation of Saw Mills."

SECTION

- 4.—Free entry.
- 5.—Repeal of Con. Stat. (2nd Ser.), cap. 15.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Arthur House and other residents of the District of St. George's have applied to the Government for a grant of certain areas of ungranted and unoccupied Crown lands in that District for the purpose of establishing thereon a farm or ranch for the raising of cattle, and have alleged that they are about to form themselves into an incorporated company by the name of "The West Coast Cattle Ranchers, Limited ;"

And whereas it is desirable to encourage the establishment of such an enterprise in the Colony.

Enacting clause.

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows :—

License of occupation.

1. Upon the incorporation of the West Coast Cattle Ranchers, Limited, hereinafter called the Company, and as soon as not less than ten thousand dollars of the capital stock thereof shall have been subscribed, the Governor in Council may issue to the Company, without payment, a license of occupation, hereinafter called "the license," for a period of twenty years, of so much of the two areas of Crown land described in the Schedule to this Act as shall, upon survey, be found to be ungranted and unoccupied.

Conditions of license.

2. The license shall be subject to the following conditions, namely :

- (a) The Company shall forthwith, upon its incorporation, cause the said lands to be surveyed by a surveyor approved by the Minister of Agriculture and Mines, and a diagram thereof to be filed in the office of the said Minister upon the completion of the said survey.
- (b) The Company shall, forthwith upon its incorporation, proceed with such fencing and cultivation as shall be necessary for commencing the effective operation of the said lands as a cattle ranch.
- (c) The Company shall, not later than the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, have the said ranch stocked with a breeding herd consisting of not less than twenty cows and one bull, and shall thereafter continuously carry on the breeding and raising of cattle on the said ranch, so that by the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, the said ranch shall be stocked with not less than twenty head of cattle for every square mile of the area thereof.
- (d) If the Company shall fail to comply with any of the foregoing conditions, the license shall be liable to forfeiture in an action in the Supreme Court at the suit of the Minister of Agriculture and Mines against the Company.

3. If the Company shall, for ten consecutive years after the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, keep the said ranch stocked with not less than twenty head of cattle for each square mile of area as aforesaid, the Company shall be entitled to a grant in fee of the lands comprised in the license; provided, however, that the Governor in Council may, at any time after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight, purchase the undertaking of the Company as a going concern, upon giving to the Company twelve months' notice of his intention

- 3.—Powers of Department.

SECTION

- 4.—Ratification of appointment, etc., of present Minister.
- 5.—Amendment of Con. Stat. (2nd Series), cap. 4.
- 6.—Short title.

Preamble.

WHEREAS for the purpose of organizing and maintaining the supply of shipping in the national interests, and of dealing with all matters of transportation by land or sea, freight rates, marine insurance, and all questions relating to the movement of freight, in connection with the present war, it has been found necessary for the Governor in Council to appoint a Minister of Shipping;

And whereas it is desirable to ratify and confirm the action of the Governor in Council in this respect, and to ratify and confirm all things done by the Minister of Shipping as such Minister.

Enacting clause.

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

Creation of Department of Shipping.

1. There shall be a Department which shall be called the Department of Shipping, over which the Minister of Shipping, appointed by the Governor in Council, by Commission under the Great Seal, shall preside; and the Minister of Shipping shall have the management and direction of the said Department, and shall hold office during pleasure.

Shipping Board.

2. There shall be a Board, to be called the Shipping Board, which shall be composed of the Minister of Shipping, who shall be ex officio Chairman thereof, and not less than two other members to be appointed by the Governor in Council, and to hold office during pleasure. The powers and duties of the Board shall be from time to time to confer with and advise the Minister of Shipping on matters over which the Department of Shipping has control or of which it has cognizance.

3. The Department of Shipping shall have the control and regulation of all shipping available for the needs of the country, and it shall be its duty to control and regulate the movement and employment of that shipping in such manner as to make the best use thereof, having regard to the circumstances of the time. The Department shall have power to take such steps as it thinks best for providing and maintaining an efficient supply of shipping; and for those purposes shall have such powers and be subject to such duties heretofore appertaining to any other department or authority, whether conferred by Statute or otherwise, as the Governor in Council may transfer to it or may authorize it to exercise or perform concurrently or in consultation with such other department or authority, and also such further powers as may be conferred on it by regulations under the War Measures Act, 1914, and Acts in amendment thereof.

Power of Department.

4 The appointment of the present Minister of Shipping, and all things done by him as such Minister, are hereby ratified and confirmed.

substitution.

- (5) Any Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Policeman, Customs' Officer or Game Warden, who believes, or has reason to believe, that any Beavers or Beaver skins are in or upon any house, shop, store, wharf or premises, vessel or boat, or in any package or luggage, in contravention of this Act, may enter upon such house, shop, store, wharf or premises, vessel or boat, using, if necessary, sufficient force for the purpose, and search therein and open and examine the contents of any package or luggage; and, should any Beaver or Beaver skins be found in or upon any such house, shop, store, wharf or premises, vessel or boat, or in any package or luggage, the owner or lessee thereof, or the person in possession or control thereof, shall be liable to a penalty, for a first offence, of not less than fifty dollars, and not exceeding five hundred dollars, or to imprisonment not exceeding two months; and for a second offence, to imprisonment for one year with hard labor, together with a fine of not less than two hundred dollars and not exceeding five hundred dollars, unless such owner, lessee, or other person in possession or control shall prove that such Beaver or Beaver skins were placed there without his knowledge or consent.

4. Section six of the said Act is hereby repealed, and the following is substituted therefor: Repeal and substitution.

- (6) All penalties under this Act may be sued for and recovered in a summary manner before a Stipendiary Magistrate or a Justice of the Peace by any person who shall sue for the same. A moiety of every money penalty levied by virtue of this Act shall belong to His Majesty for the use of the Game and Inland Fisheries Board, and the other moiety shall be paid to the prosecutor together with costs taxed to him in respect thereof.

Application of penalties.

5. The following is added to the said Act to stand as section ten thereof :

- (10) His Majesty's share of each penalty and all proceeds derived from the sale of confiscated goods shall be paid to the Game and Inland Fisheries Board.

Limitation of prosecutions.

6. The following is added to the said Act to stand as section eleven thereof :

- (11) All penalties incurred under this Act shall be sued for within two years from the commission of the offence.

WHEREAS by the Volunteer Acts, 1914–1917, the Gov-^{Preamble.}ernor in Council was empowered to raise certain military forces in the said Acts described as Volunteers, and to place such of the said Volunteers as might enlist for service abroad under the command of such officers of His Majesty's Army as His Majesty might appoint or designate; and in pursuance of such powers the Royal Newfoundland Regiment has been raised and placed at the disposal of the Imperial War Office as an expeditionary force for service in the present war;

And whereas by the Militia Act, 1917, a Department of Militia was created amongst other things for the control and management and the administration of military affairs in Newfoundland;

And whereas by the Military Service Act, 1918, provision has been made to supplement the said military forces by a system of Selective Draft, and it is desirable to amend the said Volunteer Acts, 1914–1917, in order to conform the same to the present status and intended future status of the said Royal Newfoundland Regiment as an expeditionary force as aforesaid, and to make further provision for Home Defence.

Enacting clause. Be it enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows :—

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as “The Military Forces Act, 1918”

Command of Forces.

2. The command in chief of the military forces of Newfoundland is hereby declared to be vested in His Majesty the King, and shall be exercised within Newfoundland by His Majesty or by His Excellency the Governor as His Majesty's representative, acting through the Minister of Militia as the responsible head of the Department having charge of Military affairs in the Colony.

Classes of Forces.

3. The military forces of Newfoundland shall consist of three classes of men, namely :

CLASS A.—Such men as have heretofore been enlisted for service abroad against the enemies of the King under the Volunteer Acts, 1914-1917, and such men as shall hereafter from time to time volunteer for enlistment and be actually enlisted for such service under this Act or regulations made thereunder.

CLASS B.—Men enlisted for such service under the Military Service Act, 1918, or under any Act in amendment thereof, or under regulations made under any of the said Acts.

CLASS C.—Men enlisted for Home Defence under this Act or regulations made hereunder.

Period of enlistment.

4. No person shall be enlisted as a member of Class A. or of Class B. for a longer period than the duration of the present war, and of demobilization after the war.

Home defence.

5. (1) The Minister of Militia may make regulations for the formation, equipment and management of Volunteer Corps for Home Defence against the enemies of the King, upon the terms that the members of such volunteer Corps shall be deemed to be enlisted in the military forces of Newfoundland as members of Class C., hereinbefore mentioned, and shall be liable in time of emergency to be called up for active service within Newfoundland, but not to be sent overseas.

- (2) Such regulations, when approved by the Governor in Council, and published in the Royal Gazette, shall have the force and effect of law.
- (3) No officer, non-commissioned officer, or man, being a member of such Volunteer Corps, shall at any time appear in uniform or armed or accoutred except when actually on duty, or at parade or drill or training, or going to or coming from the same.
- (4) Every officer, non-commissioned officer, and man, being a member of such Volunteer Corps, when called up for active service, or during any time while at drill or training or on parade or going to or coming from the same, or at any time when in uniform, shall be subject to the Army Act of the Imperial Parliament and the King's Regulations and Orders for the Army and Army Orders.

6. Every man enlisted in the military forces of Newfoundland shall, on enlistment— Oath and signature of roll.

- (a) Sign a roll in which the conditions of his service shall be stated, and
- (b) Take an oath in the following form :

"I, A. B., do sincerely promise and swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty, and that I will faithfully serve His Majesty in any place where I may be needed (or "in the Colony of Newfoundland," as the case may be) against all his enemies and opposers whatsoever, according to the conditions of my service. A. B."

Such oath may be administered by any commissioned officer or by a Justice of the Peace.

Application of Army Act, etc.

7. Every man enlisted in Class A. or Class B. shall, from the time of his enlistment in the military forces of Newfoundland until his discharge therefrom, be subject to the Army Act of the Imperial Parliament and to the King's Regulations and Orders for the Army and Army Orders, except that no man shall be subject to any corporal punishment other than imprisonment or death for any contravention of such laws and regulations.

Headquarters and Administrative offices.

8. (1) The Governor in Council may establish at St. John's or elsewhere in Newfoundland a Headquarters Staff, and may appoint such officers to such staff as may be deemed necessary.

(2) The Governor in Council may also establish in England, or elsewhere as he may from time to time deem it desirable, one or more office or offices for administrative purposes in connection with the management of the overseas forces of Newfoundland.

Appointment of officers and
N. C. officers.

9. Commissions of officers in the military forces of Newfoundland shall be granted by the Governor, and all warrant and non-commissioned officers shall be appointed in such manner and shall hold such rank as are prescribed by regulations.

Courts of Inquiry.

10. The Governor in Council may convene Courts of Inquiry, and appoint officers of the military forces of Newfoundland to constitute such Courts, for the purpose of investigating and reporting on any matter connected with the government or discipline of the said forces, or with the conduct of any officer or man of such forces; and may, at any time, convene courts martial and delegate power to convene such courts, and to appoint officers to constitute them, for the purpose of trying any officer or man of the said forces for any offence under the Army Act of the Imperial Parliament or under the King's Regulations and Orders for the Army or Army Orders, and may also delegate power to approve, confirm, mitigate or remit any sentence of any such court.

11. The regulations for the composition of Courts of Inquiry and Courts Martial, and the modes of procedure and powers thereof, shall be the same as the regulations which are at the time in force for the composition, modes of procedure and powers of Courts of Inquiry and Courts Martial for His Majesty's regular army, and which are not inconsistent with this Act or with regulations made hereunder.

Procedure of Courts.

12. (1) The Minister of Militia may from time to time make regulations for carrying this Act into effect, for the organization, discipline, efficiency and good government generally of the military forces of Newfoundland and the appointment and promotion of officers, and the pay and allowances of officers and men of the said forces, and for anything requiring to be done in connection with the military defence of Newfoundland, and may prescribe penalties for breaches of the said regulations and provide for the manner of the enforcement thereof, and all such regulations, when approved by the Governor in Council and published in the Royal Gazette, shall have the force and effect of law.

Regulations.

(2) No such regulations, if and to the extent to which the same may be inconsistent with the Army Act of the Imperial Parliament or the King's Regulations and Orders for the Army or Army Orders, shall be deemed to apply to members of the military forces of Newfoundland on active service abroad under the command of officers of His Majesty's regular army, other than members of administrative units.

13. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, put under the command of such generals or officers of His Majesty's regular army as His Majesty may appoint or designate, all or any of the officers of the said forces and of the men enlisted in Class A. and Class B. of the military forces of Newfoundland.

Command of Forces overseas.

14. No person shall be deemed to have committed a breach of any of the provisions of sections one, two, or three of Chapter one hundred and four of the Consolidated Statutes of Newfoundland (Second Series), entitled "Of Masters and Servants," by reason of his having left the service of his master for the purpose of enlisting under this Act either in Class A. or Class B.; provided that he shall have reported himself for enlistment forthwith upon leaving such service, and that if not accepted for enlistment he shall have forthwith returned or offered to return to such service. This section shall apply to every person who has left his master's service for the purpose aforesaid at any time since the seventh day of September, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

Enlistment not a breach of service agreement.

Repeal and saving clause.

15. The Volunteer Acts, 1914-1917, are hereby repealed; provided that such repeal shall not affect any act, deed, appointment, commission, matter or thing lawfully made, done or granted, or any right, privilege or title lawfully acquired under the said Acts or any of them prior to the date hereof.

within one of the classes described in section three of this Act, and who :

(a) Is ordinarily resident in Newfoundland, or

(b) has been at any time since the fourth day of August, 1914, resident in Newfoundland, shall be liable to be called out as hereinafter provided on active service in the Regiment, either in or beyond Newfoundland, unless he :

(a) Comes within the exceptions set out in the schedule, or

(b) reaches the age of forty before the class or sub-class to which he belongs, as described in section three, is called out.

Such service shall be for the duration of the present war and of demobilization after the conclusion of the war.

enlistments.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall prevent any man from voluntarily enlisting in the Regiment so long as voluntary enlistment in such Regiment is authorized ; or in the Royal Naval Reserve.

Division into classes.

3. (1) The men who are liable to be called out shall consist of four classes, as follows :—

CLASS 1.—Those who have attained the age of nineteen years and were born not earlier than the year 1893.

CLASS 2.—Those who were born in the years 1888 to 1892, both inclusive.

CLASS 3.—Those who were born in the years 1883 to 1887, both inclusive.

CLASS 4.—Those who were born in the years 1879 to 1882, both inclusive.

(2) Any Class, except Class 1 shall include men who are transferred thereto from another class as hereinafter provided, and men who have come within Class 1 since the previous class was called out.

(3) The order in which the classes are described in this section shall be the order in which they may be called out on active service, provided the Governor in Council may divide any class into sub-classes, in which case the sub-classes shall be called out in order of age beginning with the youngest.

4. (1) The Governor in Council may, from time to time, ^{Calling out by classes.} by Proclamation, call out on active service, as aforesaid, either in Newfoundland or beyond Newfoundland, any class or sub-class of men described in section three, and all men within the class or sub-class so called out shall, from the date of such Proclamation, be deemed to be soldiers enlisted in the Military Forces of Newfoundland and subject to military law for the duration of the present war, and of demobilization thereafter, save as hereinafter provided. The Proclamation calling out Class 1 shall be issued forthwith upon ^{Calling out class I.} the passing of this Act, and shall require all men so called out to report not later than the twenty-fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and the date when such men shall be placed on active service shall be fixed by the Military Service Board hereinafter mentioned.

(2) Except as hereinbefore provided, men so called out ^{Report by men called out.} shall report and shall be placed on active service in the Regiment as may be set out in such proclamation or in regulations, but until so placed on active service shall be deemed to be on leave of absence without pay.

(3) Any man who is called out and who, without reason- ^{Penalty for not reporting.} able excuse, fails to report as aforesaid, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable, on summary conviction, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding five years with hard labor.

5. (1) A Tribunal is hereby established to hear and de- ^{Tribunal.} termine all applications for exemption from service and all other questions or matters arising out of or in connection with the enforcement and operation of this Act and of the provisions and Schedule thereof.

(2) The Tribunal shall be a Court of Record and shall be composed of the Chief Justice and the other two Judges of the Supreme Court, herein called members.

- (3) The Tribunal may be held by one or more member or members who may exercise all or any part of the powers, functions and jurisdiction by this Act vested in the Tribunal. In all cases a member so sitting shall be deemed to constitute the Tribunal and any one or more member or members may sit separately as such Tribunal at the same time, and the rising or adjournment of any one or more of them shall not affect the sitting of the other or others. The Tribunal shall be held to be constituted notwithstanding a vacancy in its membership.
- (4) In case of urgency arising from the absence, illness or a vacancy in the office of any member, it shall be lawful for another member to sit either alone or with a second member for the first named member and to hear and dispose of any application for exemption, matter or question by the first named member partly heard, and to use the evidence which may have been taken by or before the first named member.
- (5) All applications for exemption questions and matters shall be heard in public unless the Tribunal in any particular case, due regard being given to the interests of the parties and any other person concerned therein, consider an application, matter or question or any part of the proceedings should be heard in private.
- (6) The Tribunal shall have all and the same powers as to the summoning and compelling the attendance and examination of witnesses and also as to process and punishment for contempt, as the Supreme Court now has.
- (7) Every determination of a member sitting apart may be reviewed, varied or set aside by the Tribunal constituted by any two, or by the three members, subject in cases in which two only sitting differ in opinion to re-hearing and determination before the three members.

- (8) The determination of the Tribunal when constituted of more than one member, shall be that of the majority and shall be pronounced by one member only, and such determination shall be final and binding for all purposes whatsoever except that the Tribunal may, upon being satisfied that there are sufficient reasons for doing so, re-hear and re-view the same.
- (9) The Tribunal or any two of its members, may make Rules of rules with respect to its sittings and procedure and define the duties of the clerk. Rules of procedure.
- (10) For the purpose of ascertaining the facts relevant to its decision of any application, matter or question, the Tribunal may hear such witnesses and admit such evidence as it may in its discretion think fit.
- (11) (a) The Tribunal may, in any case in which it thinks fit, appoint a Commissioner at any place to examine witnesses upon oath, and such Commissioner shall have power to summon and compel the attendance before him of such witnesses and to find upon any question of fact submitted to him by the Tribunal. The examination of witnesses before any such Commissioner shall be taken in public. Commissioners.
- (b) In any case in which the Commissioner is satisfied upon the evidence taken before him that the applicant is clearly entitled to exemption on any of the grounds (b), (c), or (d), mentioned in section eight of this Act, or that he is obviously so infirm as to be unfit for military service, the Commissioner may, subject to any rules made or directions given by the Tribunal, grant to such applicant a conditional certificate of exemption. Commissioners may grant conditional certificates of exemption.

(c) Forthwith upon the completion of such examination the Commissioner shall report to the Tribunal the evidence so taken before him, and his findings upon any question of fact submitted to him, and, if he has granted a conditional certificate of exemption, the grounds upon which he has done so.

(d) The Tribunal shall consider the report of the Commissioner, and may confirm or vary the report or remit it to the same or another Commissioner for further enquiry, or may itself receive further evidence upon the questions of fact arising in the case, and may confirm, vary, cancel, or otherwise deal with any conditional certificate of exemption granted by the Commissioner as to it seems just.

Penalty for
not acting.

(e) Every Commissioner so appointed by the Tribunal shall, unless relieved in writing by the Tribunal, perform his duties as such Commissioner, and any Commissioner who, without reasonable excuse, fails to do so, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years.

Procedure of Tribunal.

(12) In so far as provision is not otherwise made, the procedure of the Tribunal shall be such as is determined by the Tribunal.

Immunity of Tribunal.

6. (1) No member of the Tribunal shall be responsible at law for anything done by him in good faith in the performance of his duties under this Act, and no action shall be taken against any member of the Tribunal in respect to the performance or non-performance of his duties under this Act.

(2) No proceeding authorized or pending before the Tribunal, and no decision of the Tribunal shall, by means of injunction, prohibition, mandamus, certiorari, habeas corpus, or other process, whether of the like kind or otherwise issuing out of any Court, be enjoined, restrained, stayed, removed or subjected to review or consideration upon any ground whether arising out of alleged absence of jurisdiction in the Tribunal, nullity, defect or irregularity of proceedings, or any cause whatsoever, nor shall any such decision or proceeding be questioned, reviewed or considered collaterally in any action or proceeding, civil or criminal.

7. A Clerk of the Tribunal may be appointed by the Governor in Council, and it shall be his duty, regularly and without delay, to transmit to the Registrar a copy of the records.

EXEMPTIONS.

8. (1) At any time before a date to be fixed in the Proclamation mentioned in section four, or within such further time, if any, as may be permitted by the Tribunal, an application may be made by or in respect of any man in the class or sub-class called out by such Proclamation, to the Tribunal for a certificate of exemption, on any of the following grounds:—

- (a) That it is expedient in the national interest that the man should, instead of being employed in Military service, be engaged otherwise.
- (b) That he has one or two brothers, and one of them is serving, or has served in His Majesty's Naval or Military Forces during the present war.
- (c) That he has three or more brothers, and two of them are serving or have served in His Majesty's Naval or Military Forces during the present war.
- (d) That he has persons mainly dependent upon him for support, such as parents, brothers or sisters.
- (e) Ill health or infirmity.

And if any of the grounds of such application be established, a certificate of exemption shall be granted to such man.

- (2) (a) A certificate may be conditional as to time or otherwise, Conditional Certificates,

- (b) A certificate may transfer a man to the class next in numerical order.
 - (c) When a conditional certificate is granted the conditions shall be stated on the certificate.
 - (d) It shall be the duty of any man holding a conditional certificate within three days after the conditions stated therein cease to exist, or after his exemption terminates, to give notice in writing of such fact to the Registrar; and if he fails without reasonable excuse to do so, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars.
- (3) Subject to such conditions as to application and notice as may be provided by regulations, a certificate may, during the currency thereof, be renewed, varied or withdrawn by the Tribunal.
- Penalty for false representation.
- (4) Any person who, for the purpose of obtaining a certificate or a condition in a certificate for himself or for any other person, or for the purpose of obtaining the renewal, variation or withdrawal of a certificate, makes any false statement or representation, shall be guilty of an offence under the Act 61 Victoria (1898), chapter 40, entitled "An Act respecting Perjury."
- Penalty for tampering, etc., with certificate.
- (5) Any person who alters or tampers with a certificate, or for the purpose of evading this Act, falsely represents himself to be a person to whom a certificate has been granted; or, if granted a certificate, allows, for like purpose, any other person to have possession thereof, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months.
- Duplicate certificates.
- (6) When a certificate is lost, destroyed or defaced, the Tribunal shall, upon the application of the man to whom it was granted, and upon payment of a fee of fifty cents, issue to him a duplicate of such certificate.

REGULATIONS.

9. The Governor in Council may make regulations to secure the full, effective and expeditious operation and enforcement of this Act, and in particular, but not to limit the generality of the foregoing, may :—

- (a) Appoint a Registrar under this Act and define his duties and fix his remuneration.
- (b) Authorize Officers and the Tribunal to give directions not inconsistent with this Act.
- (c) Prescribe for the keeping and transmission of records.
- (d) Appoint a Board to be known as the Military Service Board, consisting of three or more persons, and appoint such peace officers and other officers as may be deemed necessary, and give to the said Board and officers, respectively, such powers and impose on them respectively such duties as may be deemed necessary. The said Board shall be appointed forthwith upon the passing of this Act.
- (e) Make provision for expenses and remuneration for services.
- (f) Prescribe penalties for Peace Officers or other Officers appointed under the authority of this Act, who are convicted of neglect or refusal to perform duty without reasonable excuse.

(2) All proclamations and regulations shall be published forthwith in the Royal Gazette and in such other manner, if any, as the Governor in Council may think necessary to ensure knowledge thereof by all persons concerned, and shall forthwith be laid before the Legislature, if then in session, and, if not in session, within ten days after the next meeting thereof.

- Construction. (3) All regulations shall have the same force and effect as if they formed part of this Act.

CAP. XXXIII.

An Act to amend the Act 5 Edward VII. (1905), Chapter Seven, entitled "An Act to increase the Revenue by imposing Taxes upon business transacted by Telegraph and Telephone Companies within and in transit through the Colony."

[PASSED MAY 16, 1918.]

SECTION

1.—Tax to apply though company not carrying on business.

3.—Amendments retrospective.

SECTION

2.—Computation of number of cables.

4.—Short title.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the tax imposed by sub-section one of section two of the Act 5 Edward VII. (1905), Chapter Seven, was intended to apply in respect of all telegraphic cables landed in the Colony; but by a judgment of the Lords of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council delivered the tenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and subsequently carried into effect by Order of His Majesty in Council, the Commercial Cable Company was declared to be exempt from payment of the said tax upon the ground that it was not carrying on business in the Colony within the meaning of the said Act;

And whereas the Direct United States Cable Company, Limited, and the Western Union Telegraph Company, Limited, have resisted payment of the said tax upon the ground that under their contracts with the Government they were entitled to land their cables in the Colony upon terms as favourable as those granted to any other Company;

And whereas it is desirable to amend the said Act so as to give effect to the original intention thereof.

Enacting clause.

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

1. Notwithstanding anything in the Act 5 Edward VII., ^{Tax to apply though company not carrying on business.} (1905), Chapter Seven, entitled "An Act to increase the Revenue by imposing Taxes upon business transacted by Telegraph and Telephone Companies within and in transit through the Colony," the tax imposed by sub-section one of section two of the said Act shall be deemed to apply to every person, firm or company, whether corporate or unincorporate, owning or operating any telegraphic cable landed on, extended to, or established in this Colony, whether such person, firm or company does or does not carry on any telegraph or telephone business in or from this Colony.

2. For the purposes of the said Act every through tele- ^{Computation of number of cables.} graphic cable between any part of Europe and any part of America other than this Colony which is landed on, extended to, or established in this Colony by any company shall be deemed to be two complete, distinct and separate cables.

3. The foregoing amendments shall be read retrospectively and shall be construed as if they had come into force ^{Amendments retrospective.} on the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and ten.

4. This Act may be cited as the Telegraph Companies ^{Short title.} (Taxation) Act, 1918, and the said Act may be cited as the Telegraph Companies (Taxation) Act, 1905, and the two may be cited collectively as the Telegraph (Taxation) Acts, 1905-1918.

Enacting clause. BE it enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as “The Income War Tax Act, 1918.”

Interpretation. 2. In this Act, and in any regulations made under this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

- (a) “Board” means a Board of Arbitrators appointed under section twelve hereof;
- (b) “Minister” means the Minister of Finance and Customs;
- (c) “Normal Tax” means the tax authorized by paragraph (a) of section four of this Act;
- (d) “Person”, means any individual or person and any syndicate, trust, association or other body, and any body corporate, and the heirs, executors, administrators, curators and assigns or other legal representatives of such person ;

- (e) "Supertax" means the taxes authorized by paragraphs (b) to (g), both inclusive, of section four of this Act ;
- (f) "Taxpayer" means any person paying, liable to pay, or believed by the Minister to be liable to pay, any tax imposed by this Act ;
- (g) "Year" means the calendar year ;
- (h) "Court" means the Supreme Court of Newfoundland.

3. (1) For the purposes of this Act "income" means the "Income." annual net profit or gain or gratuity, whether ascertained and capable of computation as being wages, salary or other fixed amount, or unascertained as being fees or emoluments, or as being profits from a trade, or commercial or financial or other business or calling, directly or indirectly received by a person from any office or employment, or from any profession or calling, or from any trade, manufacture or business, as the case may be ; and shall include the interest, dividends or profits, directly or indirectly received from money at interest upon any security or without security, or from stocks, or from any other investment ; and, whether such gains or profits are divided or distributed or not, and also the annual profit or gain from any other source, including the income from, but not the value of property acquired by gift, bequest, devise or descent ; and including the income from, but not the proceeds of life insurance policies paid upon the death of the person insured, or payments made or credited to the insured on life insurance endowment or annuity contracts upon the maturity of the term mentioned in the contract, or upon the surrender of the contract, with the following exemptions and deductions :

- (a) Such reasonable allowance as may be allowed by the Minister for depreciation, or for any expenditure of a capital nature for renewals, or for the development of a business, and the Minister, when determining the income derived from mining and from oil and gas wells, shall make an allowance for the exhaustion of the mines and wells ;

- (b) The amount of income, the tax upon which has been paid or withheld for payment at the source of the income under the provisions of this Act ;
 - (c) Amounts paid by the taxpayer during the year to the Patriotic Fund, Women's Patriotic Association and Red Cross Fund, and other patriotic and war funds approved by the Minister ; and for religious, charitable, and educational purposes, to such amount as may be allowed by the Minister ;
 - (d) For the purposes of the normal tax, the income embraced in the personal return shall be reduced by the amount received as dividends upon the stock or from the net earnings of any company or other person which is taxable upon its income under this Act ; provided, however, that in determining the income the personal and living expenses shall not be taken into consideration.
- (2) Where an incorporated company conducts its business, whether under agreement or otherwise, in such manner as either directly or indirectly to benefit its shareholders or any one of them, or any persons directly or indirectly interested in such company, by selling its product or the goods and commodities in which it deals at less than the fair price which might be obtained therefor, the Minister may, for the purposes of this Act, determine the amount which shall be deemed to be the income of such company for the year, and in determining such amount the Minister shall have regard to the fair price which, but for any agreement, arrangement or understanding, might "Income." be or could have been obtained for such product, goods and commodities.

(3) In the case of the income of persons residing or having their head office or principal place of business outside of Newfoundland, but carrying on business in Newfoundland, either directly or through or in the name of any other person, the income shall be the net profit or gain arising from the business of such person in Newfoundland.

(4) For the purpose of the supertax only, the income of a taxpayer shall include the share to which he would be entitled of the undivided or undistributed gains and profits made by any syndicate, trust, association, corporation or other body, or any partnership, if such gains and profits were divided or distributed, unless the Minister is of opinion that the accumulations of such undivided and undistributed gains and profits is not made for the purpose of evading the tax, and is not in excess of what is reasonably required for the purposes of the business ;

(5) Income derived by a taxpayer domiciled or resident in Newfoundland from property or investments outside Newfoundland shall not be subject to taxation under this Act in any case where income tax has been paid upon it in the United Kingdom or in the Dominion of Canada or in the United States of America.

4. (1) There shall be assessed, levied and paid, upon the Normal tax and income during the preceding year of every person residing ^{supertax.} or ordinarily resident in Newfoundland, or carrying on business in Newfoundland, the following taxes :

(a) Five per centum upon all income exceeding one thousand dollars in the case of unmarried persupertax.

sons without dependents, and widows or widowers without dependents, and exceeding two thousand dollars in the case of all other persons; and in addition thereto,

- (b) Three per centum upon the amount by which the income exceeds six thousand dollars and does not exceed ten thousand dollars; and
 - (c) Six per centum upon the amount by which the income exceeds ten thousand dollars and does not exceed twenty thousand dollars; and
 - (d) Ten per centum of the amount by which the income exceeds twenty thousand dollars and does not exceed thirty thousand dollars; and
 - (e) Fifteen per centum of the amount by which the income exceeds thirty thousand dollars and does not exceed fifty thousand dollars; and
 - (f) Twenty per centum of the amount by which the income exceeds fifty thousand dollars and does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars; and
 - (g) Twenty-five per centum of the amount by which the income exceeds one hundred thousand dollars.
- (2) Corporations and joint stock companies, no matter how created or organized, shall pay the normal tax upon income exceeding two thousand dollars, but shall not be liable to pay the supertax; and the Minister may permit any corporation subject to the normal tax, the fiscal year of which is not the calendar year, to make a return and to have the tax payable by it computed upon the basis of its income for the twelve months ending with its last fiscal year preceding the date of assessment.
- (3) Any persons carrying on business in partnership shall be liable for the income tax only in their individual capacity.

- (4) A person who, after the first day of January, 1918, ^{Normal tax and} has reduced his income by the transfer or assignment of any real or personal, movable or immovable property, to such person's wife or husband, as the case may be, or to any member of the family of such person, shall, nevertheless, be liable to be taxed as if such transfer or assignment had not been made, unless the Minister is satisfied that such transfer or assignment was not made for the purpose of evading the taxes imposed under this Act or any part thereof.
- (5) Taxpayers shall be entitled to the following deductions from the amounts that would otherwise be payable by them for income tax :

From the income tax accruing for the year one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and the year one thousand nine hundred and eighteen respectively, the amounts paid by any taxpayer under the Business Profits Tax Act, 1917, and any amendments thereto, for the corresponding accounting period. In the case of a partnership, each partner shall be entitled to deduct such portion of the tax paid by the partnership under the Business Profits Tax Act, 1917, as may correspond to his interest in the income of the partnership ; provided that any taxpayer shall be entitled to deduct from the amount of tax payable by him under this Act such amount as he has paid, or may be otherwise liable to pay, directly or indirectly, under the Business Profits Tax Act, 1917.

5. The following incomes shall not be liable to taxation ^{Incomes} hereunder : ^{exempted.}

- (a) The income of the Governor ; and that of any person holding judicial office in any tribunal which has jurisdiction to interpret this Act ;

Incomes
exempted.

- (b) The incomes of Consuls and Vice-Consuls who are citizens of the country they represent, and who are not engaged in any other business or profession ;
- (c) The income of any religious, charitable, agricultural, and educational institutions, Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce ;
- (d) The incomes of labor organizations and societies and of benevolent and fraternal beneficiary societies and orders ;
- (e) The incomes of mutual corporations not having a capital represented by shares, no part of the income of which inures to the profit of any member thereof, and of life insurance companies except such amount as is credited to shareholders' account ;
- (f) The incomes of clubs, societies and associations organized and operated solely for social welfare, civic improvement, pleasure, recreation, or other non-profitable purposes, no part of the income of which inures to the benefit of any stockholder or member ;
- (g) The income derived from any bonds or other securities of the Colony of Newfoundland issued exempt from any income tax imposed in pursuance of any legislation enacted by the Legislature ; and
- (h) The military and naval pay of persons who have been on active service overseas during the present war in any of the military or naval forces of His Majesty or any of His Majesty's Allies.

Deduction of normal tax at source of income.

- 6. (1) All persons in whatever capacity acting, having the control, receipt, disposal or payment of fixed or determinable annual or periodical gains, profits or income of any taxpayer, amounting to or exceeding one thousand dollars in the case of unmarried persons without dependents, or widows or widowers without dependents, and two thousand dollars in the case of all other persons, shall on behalf of such taxpayer deduct and withhold an amount equal to the normal tax payable upon the same under this Act, and shall pay the amount so deducted to the Minister; and shall also make and render a separate and distinct return to the Minister of such gains, profits or income, containing the name and address of each taxpayer.

- (2) When the income tax of a taxpayer is withheld and deducted under the provisions of this section, such taxpayer shall not receive the benefit of any exemption or deduction under this Act unless he shall, not less than thirty days prior to the day on which the return of his income is due under section seven hereof, (a) file with the person who is required to withhold and pay the tax for him a notice in writing claiming such exemption or deduction, and thereupon the tax to the extent of such exemption or deduction shall not be withheld from such taxpayer: and (b) file with the person aforesaid and with the Minister such return of his income and a statement of the deductions and exemptions as the Minister may direct.

7. (1) Every person liable to taxation under this Act Annual return. shall, on or before the thirty-first day of March in each year, without any notice or demand, deliver to the Minister a return, on oath, in such form as the Minister may prescribe, of his total income during the last preceding calendar year. In such return the taxpayer shall state an address in Newfoundland to which all notices and other documents to be mailed or served under this Act may be mailed or sent. The oath shall be in the form V. prescribed in the Schedule to this Act.

- (2) The return in the case of a corporation, association, or other body shall be made and signed by the president, secretary, treasurer or chief agent, having a personal knowledge of the affairs of such corporation, association or other body, or, in any case, by such other person or persons employed in the business liable, or believed to be liable to taxation, as the Minister may require.

(3) If a person liable to taxation hereunder is unable for any reason to make the return required by this section, such return shall be made by the guardian, curator, tutor, or other legal representative of such person, or if there is no such legal representative, by some one acting as agent of such person, and in the case of the estate of any deceased person, and if there is no person to make a return under the provisions of this subsection, then such person as may be required by the Minister to make such return.

(4) All employers shall make a return of all persons in their employ receiving any salary or other remuneration, any portion of which is liable to taxation under this Act, and all corporations, associations and syndicates shall make a return of all dividends and bonuses paid to shareholders and members. Such returns shall be delivered to the Minister on or before the thirty-first day of March in each year, without any notice or demand being made therefor and in such form as the Minister may prescribe. The Minister may, at any time, enlarge the time for making any return.

Minister may demand information.

8 (1) If the Minister, in order to enable him to make an assessment, desires further information, or if he suspects that any person who has not made a return is liable to taxation hereunder, he may, by registered letter, require additional information, or a return containing such information as he deems necessary, to be furnished him within thirty days.

(2) The Minister may require the production, or the production on oath by the taxpayer or by his agent or officer, or by any person or partnership holding, or paying, or liable to pay, any portion of the income of any taxpayer, of any letters, accounts, invoices, statements and other documents.

(3) Any officer authorized thereto by the Minister may make such inquiry as he may deem necessary for ascertaining the income of any taxpayer, and for the purpose of such inquiry such officer shall have all the powers and authority of a Commissioner appointed under Chapter 30 of the Consolidated Statutes (Second Series), entitled "Of Inquiries Concerning Public Matters."

9. (1) For every default in complying with the provisions ^{Penalty.} of the two next preceding sections, the taxpayer and also the person or persons required to make a return, shall each be liable, on summary conviction, to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars for each day during which the default continues.

(2) Any person making a false statement in any return or in any information required by the Minister, shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a penalty not exceeding ten thousand dollars, or to six months imprisonment, or to both fine and imprisonment.

10. (1) The Minister shall, on or before the thirtieth day ^{Assessment of tax} of April in each year, or on or before such other date as he ^{by Minister.} may in any case or cases prescribe, determine the several amounts payable for the tax, and shall thereupon send, by registered mail, a notice of assessment in such form as the Minister may prescribe to each taxpayer, notifying him of the amount payable by him for the tax. The tax shall be paid within one month from the date of mailing of the notice of assessment. In default of payment, interest at the rate of seven per centum per annum shall be paid on such tax until the said tax and interest are paid.

(2) The Minister shall not be bound by any return or information supplied by or on behalf of a taxpayer, and notwithstanding such return or information, or if no return has been made, the Minister may determine the amount of the tax to be paid by any person.

(3) Any person liable to pay the tax shall continue to be liable, and in case any person so liable shall fail to make a return as required by this Act, or shall make an incorrect or false return, and does not pay the tax in whole or in part, the Minister may at any time assess such person for the tax, or such portion thereof as he may be liable to pay, and may prescribe the time within which any appeals may be made under the provisions of this Act from the assessment, or from the decision of the Board, and may fix the date of payment of the tax.

Officers disclosing
information;

11. No person employed in the service of His Majesty shall communicate or allow to be communicated to any person, not legally entitled thereto, any information obtained under the provisions of this Act, or allow any such person to inspect or have access to any written statements furnished under the provisions of this Act. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a penalty not exceeding one thousand dollars, or in default to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, with hard labor.

Penalty.

Appeal to Board of Arbitrators.

12. (1) If a taxpayer disputes the assessment by the Minister, such dispute shall be determined by a Board of Arbitrators. The Minister shall appoint one arbitrator and the taxpayer another, and the two arbitrators so appointed shall appoint a third or umpire; and in the event of a taxpayer failing to appoint an arbitrator after seven days clear notice so to do, then the Minister may apply to the Court or a Judge thereof, who shall, after due notice to the said taxpayer, appoint such arbitrator, and the arbitrators so appointed by the Minister and the Court shall thereupon appoint a third arbitrator; and if the said two arbitrators shall neglect or refuse to appoint such third arbitrator after seven days clear notice from the Government so to do, the Court or a Judge thereof shall, on the application of the Minister, appoint such third arbitrator, and the award of such Board of Arbitrators, or a majority of the Board, shall be final and binding between the parties, except as hereinafter provided with regard to appeals to the Court.

- (2) Every such arbitrator shall take an oath of office in the form J. prescribed in the Schedule to this Act. All affidavits made in pursuance of this sub-section shall be filed with the Minister.

13. A Board shall act as a Court of Revision, and shall hear and determine any appeal made by a taxpayer under this Act in such place in Newfoundland as the Minister may direct.

Board to act as Court of Revision.

14. Any person objecting to the amount at which he is assessed, or as having been wrongfully assessed, may, personally or by his agent, within twenty days after the date of mailing of the notice of assessment, as provided in section ten of this Act, give notice in writing to the Minister in form II. of the Schedule to this Act that he considers himself aggrieved for either of the causes aforesaid, otherwise such person's right to appeal shall cease, and the assessment made shall stand and be valid and binding upon all parties concerned, notwithstanding any defect, error or omission that may have been made therein, or in any proceeding required by this Act or any regulation hereunder; provided, however, that the Minister, either before or after the expiry of the said twenty days, may give a taxpayer further time in which to appeal.

appealing;

Notice of appeal.

Powers of Board. 15. (1) A Board, after hearing any evidence adduced, and upon such other inquiry as it considers advisable, shall determine the matter and confirm or amend the assessment accordingly. A Board may increase the assessment in any case before it. The Board shall send a copy of its decision by registered mail to the taxpayer or his agent or officer.

(2) In any case where the appeal is unsuccessful, the Board may direct that the person who appealed shall pay the costs or part of the costs of such appeal; and if such appeal is successful, a Board may recommend that the costs or any part thereof be paid by the Crown. The tariff of fees shall be as prescribed by the Board.

Default in appearance on appeal.

16. If the taxpayer fails to appear either in person or by agent, the Board may proceed ex parte or may defer the hearing.

Appeal to Court.

17. If the taxpayer is dissatisfied with the decision of a Board, he may, within twenty days after the mailing of the decision, give a written notice to the Minister in form III. of the Schedule to this Act that he desires to appeal from such decision. If the taxpayer gives such notice, or if the Minister is dissatisfied with the decision, the Minister shall refer the matter to the Court for hearing and determination, and such reference may be made in form IV of the Schedule to this Act, and he shall notify the taxpayer by registered letter that he has made such reference. On any such reference the Court shall hear and consider such matter upon the papers and evidence referred, and upon any further evidence which the taxpayer or the Crown produces under the direction of the Court, and the decision of the Court thereon shall be final and conclusive.

Jurisdiction of Court.

18. Except as hereinafter expressly provided, the Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all questions that may arise in connection with any proceeding taken under this Act, and may award costs in connection therewith.

19. (1) No assessment shall be set aside by a Board or by the Court upon the ground that there has been any error or omission in connection with any proceedings required to be taken under this Act or any regulation hereunder, but such Board or Court, in any case that may come before it, may determine the true and proper amount of the tax to be paid hereunder.

Irregularities in procedure not to avoid assessment.

(2) All the proceedings of the Board and of the Court shall be held in camera if requested by the taxpayer.

20. The taxes and all interest and costs assessed or imposed under the provisions of this Act shall be recoverable as a debt due to His Majesty from the person on whom it is assessed or imposed.

Tax a debt due the Crown.

21. Any tax, interest, costs or penalty that may be assessed, recovered or imposed under this Act may, at the option of the Minister, be recovered and imposed in the Court in the name of His Majesty.

Recovery of tax.

22. The Minister shall have the administration of this Act, and the control and management of the collection of the taxation levied hereby, and of all matters incident thereto, and of the officers and persons employed in that service. The Minister may make any regulations deemed necessary for carrying this Act into effect.

Powers of Minister ;

CAP. XXXV.

An Act to Authorize the Raising of a Sum of Money by Loan for Naval and Military Purposes.

[PASSED MAY 16TH, 1918.],

SECTION

- 1.—Authority to raise loan of $6,000,000.
- 2.—Application of loan.
- 3.—Powers of Governor in Council.

SECTION

- 4.—Stock available for Sinking Fund under 58 Vic., cap. 13.
- 5.—Exemption from taxation.
- 6.—Repeal.

7.—Short title.

Enacting clause.

BE it enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

Authority to raise loan of $ 6,000,000

1. The Governor in Council shall have power to raise, upon the credit of the Colony, a loan not exceeding the sum of six million dollars ($6,000,000), which sum, together with interest thereon at a rate not exceeding six and one-half per centum per annum, payable half yearly on the first days of January and July in each year, shall be chargeable upon and repayable out of the funds of the Colony in the manner hereinafter provided, on or before the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight.

2. The said sum, or so much thereof as shall be necessary, ^{Application of loan.} shall be applied to the conduct of naval and military operations in or beyond Newfoundland, and to the defence and security of the Colony.

3. Subject as hereinbefore provided with regard to the ^{Powers of Governor in Council.} amount of the said loan, to the maximum rate of interest payable thereon, to the time of payment of such interest, to the assets chargeable with the said loan and the interest thereon, and to the time within which such loan shall be repayable, the Governor in Council shall have and may exercise all such powers as shall be necessary or proper for conducting all business connected with—

(a) The raising of the said loan ;

(b) The issue of securities therefor ;

(c) The management of such securities and the payment of dividends or interest thereon ; and

(d) The making of proper provision for the repayment of the said loan, in accordance with the laws of any country or countries in which such loan or any part thereof may be raised.

4. Any stock issued in accordance with this Act may, ^{Stock available for Sinking Fund under 58 Vic., cap. 13.} with the consent of the holders of the stock issued under the provisions of the Act fifty-eight Victoria (1895), Chapter Thirteen, be made available for the sinking fund connected with that issue.

5. The obligations represented by securities of the Colony ^{Exemption from taxation.} issued under this Act, and all payments in discharge thereof, shall be exempt from all present and future taxes imposed by the Legislature, including any Newfoundland Income Tax, and the payment of the interest and the principal thereof shall be made in time of war as well as of peace.

6. The Loan Act, 1917, is hereby repealed.

Repeal.

7. This Act may be cited as "The Loan Act, 1918."

Short title.

CAP. XXXVI.

An Act for Granting to His Majesty Certain Sums of Money for defraying certain Expenses of the Public Service for the Financial Years ending respectively the Thirtieth day of June, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighteen, and the Thirtieth day of June, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Nineteen, and for other purposes relating to the Public Service.

[PASSED MAY 16TH, 1918.]

SECTION

- 1.—$700,000,338.30 to be expended for purposes set out in Schedule A.
- 2.—3,055,259.51 to be expended for purposes set out in Schedule B.

SECTION

- 3.—Respecting expenditure by local Boards or Councils.
 - 4.—Respecting payment of moneys appropriated.
- Schedules.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY;—

Preamble.

WHEREAS it appears that the sums hereinafter mentioned are required to defray certain expenses of the Public Service of Newfoundland, not otherwise provided for, for the financial years ending respectively the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and for other purposes connected with the Public Service.

MAY IT THEREFORE PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY;—

Enacting clause.

That it may be enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and the House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

$700,000,338.30 to be expended for purposes set out in Schedule A.

1. From and out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund there shall and may be paid and applied a sum not exceeding in the whole seven hundred thousand three hundred and thirty-eight dollars and thirty cents towards defraying the several charges and expenses of the Public Service of the Colony from the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, not otherwise provided for and set forth in Schedule A. to this Act, and also for other purposes in the said Schedule mentioned.

2. From and out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund there shall and may be paid and applied a sum not exceeding in the whole three million and fifty-five thousand two hundred and fifty-nine dollars and fifty-one cents towards defraying the several charges and expenses of the Public Service of the Colony from the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, not otherwise provided for and set forth in Schedule B. to this Act, and also for other purposes in the said Schedule contained.

3. Notwithstanding anything in any law to the contrary, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council in the case of Districts or neighborhoods having Local Boards or Councils, to authorize the payment at any time after the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, to such Local Boards or Councils, of all moneys voted in respect of such Districts or neighborhoods for Public Charities, and Roads, Bridges and Ferries in Schedule B. to this Act; and all such moneys, when paid to them as aforesaid, may be expended by such Boards or Councils for such local needs and requirements as the said Board or Council may determine.

4. The moneys hereinafter appropriated shall be paid by the Minister of Finance in discharge of such Warrants as may from time to time be drawn by the Governor for the purposes therein set forth.
